Should circumstances arise in which publicly traded companies ask to disclose their submitted data prior to the ISTH event for legal reasons or in order to comply with Securities and Exchange Commission or similar authorities requirements, the ISTH may grant exceptional permission to release specific data. The ISTH reserves all rights to decide whether any data that is released may be in breach of the Embargo Policy and disqualify an abstract for presentation.

We ask companies – if at all possible - to communicate with the ISTH as early as possible if such public disclosures have to be made to ensure for a transparent, open process.

Media Policy

- Any media outlet or press representative wishing to attend an ISTH Event and/or to obtain official press releases from the ISTH Press Office must commit to respecting any and all embargoes set by the ISTH. Press representatives who receive embargoed material from the ISTH understand that it is for their individual use and will not distribute the embargoed information to anyone else prior to the embargo release. Embargoed materials include - but are not limited to - original journal articles, abstracts from scientific meetings, written news releases, audio news releases, video news releases, slides and any other materials associated with the scientific information being presented or published.

- Embargoed materials as well as results and information related to sessions at any meeting or event organized by the ISTH are strictly confidential and cannot be disclosed in any manner or for any purpose prior to the lifting of the embargo by the ISTH.
- The information contained in the abstracts is embargoed until the abstracts are available online. Coverage of information that goes beyond that which is contained in the four corners of the abstract (e.g., additional analysis, commentary, or updated information from those individuals and companies involved in the study) is embargoed according to the following criteria: For oral presentations: the embargo time is the start time of the session in which the presentation is being made. For poster presentations: the embargo lifts when the poster session containing the poster opens for viewing in the morning (i.e., when the poster hall opens that day).
- The ISTH Press tab of the website should be consulted for updated embargo information. For any questions related to embargoes, contact the ISTH for clarification prior to releasing the information.

If you have questions regarding the media policy please contact Andy Masten at andrew\_masten@isth.org.
