To Whom It May Concern,

We regret to inform you that the International Society on Thrombosis and Haemostasis (ISTH) has made the decision to cancel its XXVIII Congress, originally scheduled to take place in Milan, Italy, from July 11-15. The decision to cancel has been made due to the magnitude of the COVID-19 pandemic in Italy and around the world.

By canceling three months prior to the Congress, the ISTH hopes that registrants will have time to make alternative plans and to cancel all travel arrangements. However, we recognize that this is still an inconvenience to everyone who has already registered and booked travel.

Please note that all paid registrants will receive a full refund within 30 days. For additional information, visit our cancellation FAQ at www.isth2020.org.
